

User Management with Internal Directory

The internal directory allows you to manage and create users and groups local to your PBX.

Directory Settings

Directory Settings

Default Groups

Select Some Options

Default Groups: Select which groups new users are added to when they are created